xyzmo USA LLC to Exhibit at the AIIM International Exposition & Conference – The Future of Information Management, March 3-6, 2008

Jersey City, NJ – January 14, 2008 – xyzmo USA LLC, the international leader in digital signature technology, will participate as an exhibitor at the AIIM International Exposition & Conference at the Boston Convention & Exposition Center, March 3-6, 2008 in Booth #3334. On display will be demonstrations involving the product xyzmo Seal; xyzmo's digital sealing software.

The xyzmo Seal creates a visible digital stamp imprint on an electronic document which contains various optional features such as: a trusted third-party timestamp, a company logo and a handwritten signature including its biometric data. The user may add as few or as many of these features during customization as well as multiple seals on a single electronic document, (which are supported without invalidating one another). The xyzmo Seal can be verified with a single mouse click online or offline. The software is available for high volume processing or as a server product.

xyzmo's software does not require maintaining an expensive PKI infrastructure. xyzmo's software can be easily integrated into existing IT environments; therefore guaranteeing customers a ROI within 12 months.

The AIIM International Exposition & Conference is the world's largest and oldest educational conference and exposition. The place to go to gain control, meet compliance standards and access important information from structured and unstructured data, the AIIM International Exposition & Conference assists IT professionals turn content and information into a powerful business tool. The exposition and conference attracts business professionals and executive management seeking the latest technologies to capture, manage, share, and store documents and digital content to support business processes, comply with governmental regulations, drive down costs, and gain the competitive advantage.

Throughout the AIIM Expo xyzmo will be holding frequent signature pad giveaways for attendees that drop their business cards off at Booth #3334.

Juergen Hirtenfelder, xyzmo's Managing Director had this to say about xyzmo's participation in the AIIM expo, "It's an honor for xyzmo to be involved with an event such as the AIIM International Expo and Conference. AIIM's reputation a leading networking event for IT professionals makes xyzmo look forward to this event with great anticipation. We are offering a ground breaking new product to a tech savvy group of individuals; the results should be rewarding”.
